Introduction

The SUDI Prevention training app is provided by Hāpai Te Hauora, National SUDI Prevention Coordination Service, and is subject to New Zealand privacy laws, including the Privacy Act 2020. This Privacy Policy outlines how we collect, use, and protect your personal information when you use our mobile app. We are committed to respecting your privacy and complying with all applicable privacy regulations in New Zealand.

1. Collection of Personal Information

When you choose to use the SUDI Prevention training app, you will be asked to provide personal information. Providing this information is entirely optional, and you can access the app without submitting any personal details. The information we collect includes:

- Name
- Occupation
- Region of Work
- Pepeha or optional user-provided details related to whakapapa associations (Name, Mountain, Sea, River, Canoe, Tribe/Sub-tribe, Marae, City, Country).

Please note that we do not collect or store certain sensitive information such as contact details, photographs, video recordings, financial or medical information, ethnicity, religious beliefs, or opinions. All information provided is at the discretion of the user, and individuals can choose to opt out of providing any details related to the aforementioned information types.

2. Use of Personal Information

We collect your personal information for the following purposes:

To provide certification of completion of training and for reporting purposes.

3. Sharing of Information

Your identifiable personal information will not be shared with any other organization unless required by law or permitted by the Privacy Act 2020 or other applicable New Zealand privacy regulations.

4. Security of Information

We take your privacy seriously and implement reasonable measures to ensure that your personal information is securely stored, protected from unauthorized access, use, modification, or disclosure, in compliance with New Zealand privacy laws.

5. Your Privacy Rights

Under New Zealand privacy laws, you have the following privacy rights:

To request a copy of the personal information we hold about you.

To request corrections to your personal information if you believe it is inaccurate.

To exercise these rights or if you have any questions or concerns regarding your personal information, please contact us at:
